16th February, 2017

Assalaamu Alaikum Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Following today's release of the statement of the Federal Minister of Education Simon Birmingham and the notice received from Commonwealth by the school, our Chairperson Dr Mansoor Khan has confirmed with the commonwealth Education Department that the Islamic College of South Australia will be receiving the Commonwealth funding until April 2017.

The school board will request a review to the Commonwealth addressing the issues raised in the notice with a view to ensuring ongoing funding beyond April 2017. We will keep you informed as these reports progress.

We pray that May Allah SWT will help us to stay focused on what is in the best interest of our children.

We thank you for your continuous support.
